

The difference between Successful students and average students

A typical example

When a teacher wants to review a chapter he taught last week..

Three things happen

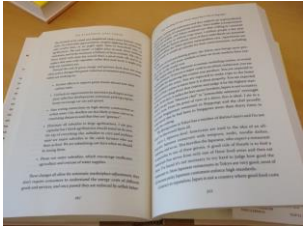

- Books of most successful students will look like

جامعة اليمامة
 Al Yamamah University Slide # 2 6/18/2016

Three things happen

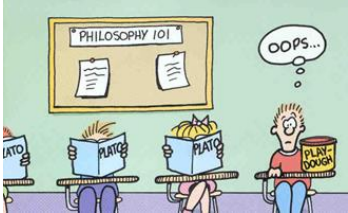

- The mid-range students open their textbooks, which look brand new;

جامعة اليمامة
 Al Yamamah University Slide # 3 6/18/2016

Three things happen

- The remainder didn't bring their books.

جامعة اليمامة
 Al Yamamah University Slide # 4 6/18/2016

Average Vs Superb Students

Class Performance	Taking class notes	Reading textbook	Taking test and exams	Grade Performance

Don't worry, you can attain these skills and can be better than him.

10 Study Habits of Successful Students

Top 10 Habits of Successful Students

- 1. They act in a professional manner. They treat study like doing a job.
- 2. They come to the class prepared with book, pen, not book, syllabus, calculator etc. and they take class notes.
- 3. They come to the class early or at least on time. If they are absent, they do three things:
 - I. They call or email instructor informing they he will be absent and ask if there is any quiz, assignment.
 - II. They pickup/collect handouts given by instructor
 - III. They come early for the next class to collect notes, or to discuss with the classmates.

Top 10 Habits of Successful Students

- 4. They respect the instructor and the classmates. They pay attention during lecture regardless the topic discussed is interesting or boring. They make frequent eye contact with the instructor. They avoid doing any distracting things in the class.
- 5. They are good in time management, they submit their homework early or on time. They usually start with difficult assignment first, then move to easy one.
- 6. They study regularly but they do not study long hours.

Top 10 Habits of Successful Students

- 7. They usually have study plan/schedules.
- 8. They follow the rules, they read instructions but are not shy or afraid of asking questions
- 9. They learn from poor test grades and are motivated to improve performance
- 10. They take care their body and mind.